This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

THIS record of the deaths in Woburn for the years 1873–1890, inclusive, has been compiled from the official record in the office of the city clerk, and from the undertakers' returns on file in that office. I have also made use of the gravestone records in the Woburn Public Cemetery, and some few records obtained from private sources.

The official record kept by the city clerk is supposed to be a faithful transcript of the facts contained in the burial returns filed by the undertakers. As a matter of fact, however, these returns have not, in all cases, been correctly transcribed into the record book; so that in order to secure completeness and accuracy in this printed compilation, I have deemed it necessary to go back to the undertakers' returns, and to compare each entry in the record book with the data contained in those returns. Where there was a discrepancy the facts as given in the returns have been followed. These returns, it is true, are sometimes incomplete and very carelessly filled out; but they are much more reliable than the copy made from them and used as the official record. To illustrate: in one instance, the name Small in the undertaker's return is copied Smith into the official record; the name Purtell appears as Prentice; Wood as Ward; Reall as Reade, and again as Riral, etc., etc. In one case, the color of the deceased which was written "white" in the undertaker's return was copied into the official record book as the man's surname.

In addition to these inaccuracies I found several burial returns filed by the undertakers which had not been copied at all into the city clerk's books. In one year there were no less than eleven of these omissions. In compliance with a law passed in 1887 the undertakers' returns for the past few years have been nicely bound together and indexed conveniently for examination and reference.

A more or less complete file of the burial returns in Woburn extends back to the year 1854, and, apart from the reasons already stated, they are of great value in that they furnish certain facts not always to be found in the clerk's record; as, for example, the maiden name of the mother of the deceased is usually given in these returns but seldom appears in the clerk's record book. There are probably some of these returns to be found in the possession of families whose relatives have served as undertakers in years past, and I suggest that an effort be made by the city authorities to secure possession of these public documents for the public service.

In this connection, too, I call attention to the fact that there is no public record kept of interments made in the Woburn Public Cemetery except of persons who died in Woburn. I am informed that there are such records in the possession of present and past undertakers, but neither the city clerk nor the Board of Cemetery

Commissioners has any record whatever of interments made in Woburn of persons who have died elsewhere and have been buried in Woburn. Moreover, in the absence of a gravestone, there is no public record to indicate in what lot the body of a deceased person lies interred in our Woburn Public Cemetery. These things are certainly not as they should be, and, without desiring to criticise any one, I deem it a public duty to call attention to the facts.

I have had placed in my possession, by Mr. Edward Simonds, an old account book kept by Deacon Benjamin Wyman, grandfather of our present postmaster, Arthur B. Wyman, and a prominent man in Woburn in the early part of the century.* This book contains an "Account of Deaths" in Woburn for the years 1815–1831, inclusive, — with a few entries for the year 1832 which were crossed out and probably copied into another book, — and appears to be one of a series of similar books kept by Deacon Wyman. It is possible that others of the series are still in existence.

In this crude little account book there are, to be sure, only two or three deaths recorded which are not found in the town clerk's book; but, in many instances, Deacon Wyman details some particulars about the deceased, or the circumstances of his death, which are interesting and valuable, and are not to be found in the town records. Sometimes he makes a brief comment about the character of the decedent; and, in some cases, he places a B. or a U. after the record to indicate that the deceased was a Baptist or a Universalist. His record sometimes states the relationship of the deceased to other persons; and, not infrequently, it supplies the month and the day of the month on which he died, — facts not always given in the town records, especially in the year 1831. I am informed that there are other similar private records in existence. If so, they should be brought to public attention.

In the following pages I have inserted, by way of foot-note, under the proper surname, such extracts from Deacon Wyman's Account Book as seemed for one reason and another, after I had compared each of his entries with the printed record of deaths 1640–1872, to contain the most valuable data. The original book will be placed in the Woburn Public Library for safe keeping and for the convenience of those who may want to consult it.

In the autumn of 1890 I copied off all the inscriptions then to be found in the Woburn Public Cemetery. The Cemetery Commissioners are about to publish this transcript verbatim et literatim, so that I have not inserted in this work, excepting in a few cases, anything more than the mere record of name and date of death of those persons whose names are not found on the city clerk's records.

The number of deaths here printed, exclusive of those mentioned in the foot-notes, is just 4,000.

Except where the contrary appears, the birthplace of the deceased is Woburn.

EDWARD F. JOHNSON.

FEB. 14, 1893.

* He was a conveyancer, an auctioneer, an administrator of estates, and a very useful man of affairs generally. He died in 1836, aged 68.

The Joseph Johnson who died at Tay's Tavern, May 28, 1821, was probably born in Andover. His son, Solon L. Johnson, who was born in Bradford, Vt., Sept. 10, 1806, is now living in Wilmington, Mass. He tells me that his father, Joseph, married Betsey Bickford, of Salem, and had a brother Isaac.

* Kendall. (Addition, 1640–1872.) Betsey R. Gage, wife of Oliver L. Kendall (b. Nov. 28, 1820), Sept. 6, 1859. (Gravestone.)

March 1, 1830, Mary Kendall, of Burlington, belonging to this church [died], buried in Woburn. — July 2, 1831, Joseph Kendall, son of Obadiah [died]. — Dea. Wyman's Account Book.

"In a recent visit to the community of our people in Harvard, Mass., I collected some manuscripts containing some items of the Kendalls, formerly of Woburn. In the last century and the days of the Revolution of our government there lived in the old town of Woburn one Nathan Kendall and his wife Sarah. They were prominent characters, moved in the best circles, were wealthy and able to live in the best style of the age. The family embraced parents, two sons, Nathan and Paul, and five daughters, Hannah, Sarah, Rebecca, Jane, and Eunice. About the year 1781 the religious faith, life, and principles of the Shakers were openly declared and preached in Woburn, and all the members of this family embraced their doctrines. Soon after their embodiment with the Shakers, Jane died; and the funeral your grandmother in her girlhood attended — the record of which has been traditionally passed down in your family to the present generation — is probably the one reported to me. Somewhere about the year 1790. Nathan, the father, disposed of his farm and property in Woburn, and moved with his family to Mount Lebanon, N. Y., where a church was established on communistic principles, after the pattern of the first Christian apostolic church at Jerusalem. As other churches were formed of the sect in other places, ministers and officers were chosen for labors therein, and Hannah Kendall was called to the order of ministry, presiding over the societies of Harvard and Shirley, Mass., and Sarah over the societies of Alfred and New Gloucester, Me. This family all lived and died in Christian fellowship, honoring their profession and being honored. I found nothing more of persons or of events that I think would interest you." — Extract from a Letter of Elder Abraham Perkins to Leonard Thompson, Esq., dated Enfield, N. H., March 21, 1892.

In the possession of N. W. Eaton, Esq., of Woburn, there is a "Petition to the Selectmen of Woburn, Mass., to Exterminate a Meeting of Quakers." This document, in connection with the preceding statement of facts in relation to the family of Nathan Kendall, is of great interest and value in showing the sentiment of certain members of the community towards the "Shakers," who are therein referred to as "Quakers." The petition reads as follows: —

"Gentlemen: The subscribers being informed that there is a Number of People (strangers to us) under Pretence of Religion (as they say) convened at the House of Mr. Nathan Kendall in this Town, whose Conduct (if Reports are true) is contrary to the Laws of God & of this Commonwealth,

"Therefore we earnestly Request you as Fathers of the Town, & as you Regard the peace, prosperity and happiness of the same, that you Forthwith take the most effectual (Reasonable) measures to exterminate those Persons, whom we suppose to be Strolers or Vagabonds.

"To the Selectmen, Woburn, Dec. 5, 1781.

[Signed] Samuel Dean, Joshua Jones, John Bruce, Jacob Eames, Timo. Brooks, Wm. Tay, Jona. Fox, Josiah Walker, Saml. Blodget, Barth. Richardson, Benjamin Edgell, Joseph Winn, Josiah Fowle, Jonathan Wright, Daniel Johnson, Jona. Kendall, Josiah Johnson, Nathan Richardson, Luke Richardson, Wm. Scott, William Abbott, Josiah Wright, Joseph Bruce, Saml. Wyman, Junr., David Blanchard, Shubael Johnson."

For an account of the visit of Elder Abraham Perkins to Woburn, see the News of Woburn, Nov. 14, 1891. It is to be remembered that it was Leonard Thompson, Esq., who gave the name to the present Shakers' Glen, because situate on what was once the farm of the above Nathan Kendall. See the News, Aug. 8 and 15, 1891. The Nathan Kendall place was afterwards owned by Francis Babcock, Esq. (see note under Frye), and later by Oliver B. Coolidge (see note under Weston).

* The following record, a few facts in which are made up from the records of Middlesex County, and the remainder from an old, dilapidated Bible, once thrown into the waste heap, but now in the possession of Charlotte (Woodman) Ham, of this city, a daughter of Charles C. Woodman, is here printed for the purpose of preservation. The data are not to be found in the register's office of the city of Boston, although most, if not all, the children of David and Elizabeth Woodman were born there.

David Woodman, son of Samuel, was born in Newburyport, Aug. 13, 1786, and died in East Boston, Nov. 25, 1853. He was a baker in Boston. He bought a farm in Medford, near the village of South Woburn, April 1, 1846, and lived there with his sons, Hiram and Webster. This farm was afterwards sold, and, in 1851, he bought of Nathaniel P. Wiggin an estate on the westerly side of Main Street in the southerly part of Winchester, and was living there at the time of his sudden death by heart disease, while on a visit to Boston. He was buried at Mount Auburn. His wife was Elizabeth Trusdell, born July 9, 1789. They were married in 1807. She survived her husband many years and died in Dorchester. Their children, all of whom are believed to have been born in Boston, were: (1.) Albert, b. May 14, 1808, d. March 10, 1834. (2.) David, b. July 16, 1809, mar. Caroline Warner, May, 1833, and d. Oct., 1855. He lived in St. Louis and afterwards in Janesville, Wis., and had children, Josiah H. and David. (3.) Charles H., b. June 9, 1811; d. Oct. 13, 1812. (4.) Elizabeth, b. S pt. 27, 1814, mar. Joshua Norton, a merchant of Boston, Sept., 1838. (5.) Joseph H., b. April 4, 1816. He lived in St. Louis and afterwards [1858] in Vincennes, Ind. His wife's name was Mary Ann. (6) Hannah Jane, b. Oct. 4, 1817, mar. Charles Philip Lewis, a merchant of Dorchester. (7.) Susan B., b. Oct. 14, 1818, mar. Thomas T. Ordway of Winchester and later [1858] of Dorchester. (8.) Charlotte P., b. March 22, 1819, d. Aug. 4, 1819. (9). Charlotte, b. May 22, 1821, mar. Josiah Hovey of Winchester, and died May 31, 1857. (10.) Hiram, b. Nov. 28, 1823. His wife's name was Rebecca L., and he was living in New York in 1858. (11.) A daughter, stillborn, April 25, 1825. (12.) Lydia Courier, b. May 2, 1826, d. May 3, 1826. (13.) Daniel Webster, b. May 4, 1828. He lived in New York and was unmarried in 1858. (14.) Charles C., b. Nov. 27, 1829, mar. Harriet J. Fox, at Winchester, Oct. 15, 1852, and died in New York, July 17, 1867. (15.) Richard T., b. Feb. 16, 1832, d. March 2, 1832. (16.) Ann D., b. Feb. 16, 1832, d. Feb. 28, 1834.

OF THE

LOCAL HISTORY OF WOBURN.

BY WILLIAM R. CUTTER.

HUBBARD'S MAP.

In relation to the subject of maps on which Woburn is represented, the above map should not be overlooked. This map was the first one ever cut, or engraved, in this country. It is a map of New England on which Woburn appears, and its date is 1676, the time of King Philip's War, the frightful Indian war which was then devastating the New England people. Our Public Library possesses an original copy of the rarest edition of this early and singular map. There were made two editions of the map,— one the more common, in which the White Mountains are represented under the name of the " Wine Hills " (Winne from Winnepesaukee Lake), and another, the more scarce, in which the White Mountains are named the "White Hills." The Library copy is a " White Hills " map, in common parlance, and is so pronounced by Dr. Samuel A. Green, of Boston, an eminent expert, and a specialist in the study of these Hubbard maps. It appears that Mr. Jarves, the donor, endeavored to supply a missing portion of our copy from a copy of the " Wine Hills " edition, supposed by him, or the person employed by him, to be the same map. The restoration was attempted with a pen; but Dr. Green, after a careful examination of the original portion, immediately pronounced it to be a " White Hills " copy, it corresponding exactly in its peculiar features with the impressions of the " White Hills " map extant. Now four copies only of this " White Hills " map are known to be in existence. The Library copy is one. The other three are found : one, in the Lenox Library, New York ; one, somewhat imperfect, in the Library of the Massachusetts Historical Society, and one, a recent accession, in the Boston Public Library.

Dr. Green is the author of two productions relating to the subject of the Hubbard Map, viz. :

(1.) Hubbard's Map of New England, engraved probably by John Foster, the first printer of Boston. Remarks made before the Massachusetts Historical Society, Nov. 8, 1888, by Samuel Abbott Green, M. D., with a fac-simile of the map. Cambridge, 1888, 10 pp. 8vo.

(2.) Hubbard's Map of New England. Supplement. June 12, 1890, 2 pp. (11, 12, of the above). 30 copies printed. With a fac-simile of the "White Hills" map.

See also, for a description of Dr. Green's examination of the Woburn copy, the Woburn Public Library Report, for 1890, pp. 212, 213.

The late James Jackson Jarves, the well-known art-critic, presented this copy of this rare map to the Woburn Public Library in 1883, through Hon. Edward D. Hayden of Woburn. The map was found by him in the street fifty years before. An examination showed that it was identical with the map serving as the frontispiece to Hubbard's History of the Indian wars in New England, a work first printed in Boston in the year 1677, and the inscription mentions the fact that it was the "first that ever was here cut, and done by the best pattern that could be had, which being in some places defective, it made the other less exact, yet doth it sufficiently show the situation of the country, and conveniently well the distance of places." It was evidently designed to show the towns that the Indians had attacked in Philip's War (1675-76). Woburn is designated by the figures 39, together with its name; the figures referring to a paragraph similarly numbered in the work, giving an account of the particular attack on the town, which was the well-known murder of the three members of the Richardson family, — a mother and two children — in 1676.

ELIAS SMITH.

FIVE LETTERS, WITH REMARKS, printed by J. Ball for Elias Smith, Boston, 1804.

This pamphlet was described by the present writer in the issue of the Woburn Journal for April 3, 1885. Smith was an erratic clergyman; pastor of the First Baptist Church in Woburn, 1798–1804. The first three letters relate to religious difficulties experienced by the churches in Boston on account of their too enthusiastic members. The third letter also refers to some difficulty in Boston on account of the color of Thomas Paul, a colored preacher, who afterwards preached with acceptance to the church in Woburn. Letters four and five relate to troubles concerning the church at Woburn, and Smith's connection with them; the Woburn church would not recommend him as a minister, and on this account the Boston ministers of the regular Baptist order would not ask him to preach. In resentment, Smith disclaimed being a member of the Woburn church, or, indeed, of the Baptist denomination. He then opposed the installing, or re-installing of ministers. "This practice," he said, "I reject." He further said, "I once went through this part of anti-Christianism in Woburn; 'the Lord pardon me in this thing!'" The following two publications of Smith's are in the Woburn Public Library: (1) Clergyman's Looking-glass; history of the birth, life, and death of anti-Christ. In 3 books: No. 2. Portsmouth, N. H., 1803. (2) Doctrine of the prince of peace, and his servants, concerning the end of the wicked contrasted with the doctrines of the prince of this world, and his servants, on the same subject. [Five sermons devoted to the doctrines of Universalism.] Boston, 1805.

THE LIFE, CONVERSION, PREACHING, TRAVELS, AND SUFFERINGS OF ELIAS SMITH: written by himself. Vol. 1. Portsmouth, N. H., 1816. Autograph of Leonard Thompson, 1831.

Contains references to his experience in Woburn.

COUNT RUMFORD.

RUMFORD HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION, WOBURN, MASS., incorporated 1877. Boston, 1892. 8°. 16 pp. A revised edition of manual of 1881. See BIBLIOGRAPHY, proper, page 210.

The date appended to an addition to the original sketch of the history of the society is March 26, 1892,— the birthday of the Count, and also the date of the annual meeting of the society. In the pamphlet are included a list of the officers, a sketch of the history, the constitution and by-laws of the association, and the names of the members. There are three illustrations: one of the house, one of Count Rumford himself, and one of his daughter.

GENEALOGIES.

Baldwin — Parker. A sheet of 4 pages, folio, entitled: Records concerning the houses of Baldwin, Coffin, Parker. Compiled by Alfred Cook Fuller, one of the descendants. Cambridge, Mass., 1891.

An account of John Burbeen, who came from Scotland and settled at Woburn, Massachusetts, about 1660, and of such of his descendants as have borne the surname of Burbeen. [1660–1799.] Compiled from the town records of Woburn, epitaphs of its first and second burying-grounds, manuscript records of Charles Walker, Esq., of Concord, N. H., and sundry other sources. By Joseph Burbeen Walker. Concord, N. H., 1892. 150 copies.

Contains a picture of the old Burbeen house, Woburn, Mass. The whole number of persons in this country who have borne the surname of Burbeen has been, so far as discovered, only 19. One hundred and forty years from the time of its introduction the name became extinct. Five of its male members only are known to have married. All of John Burbeen's descendants, born since 1746, have come from female scions of the original stock. The blood is still in the country but is found only under names other than that of Burbeen — PREFACE.

VIEWS.

1832. In this year the late Harrison Parker, Esq., made a sketch of the house of Abel Richardson, 1773–1831, located at the present centre of Winchester. This was the house supposed to be built by Edward Converse in 1641, — the earliest house erected in the limits of the original town of Woburn. From the sketch by Mr. Parker, a drawing was made in 1890, by Mr. Allan E. Boone, a copy of which now belongs to the Winchester Historical and Genealogical Society.

ADDENDA.*

EDWARD JOHNSON. — The Woburn Public Library has lately acquired by purchase a copy of the original edition of the "Wonder-Working Providence" of Edward Johnson (London, 1654), which was bought in London in the year 1810 for seven shillings sterling. The history of this special copy is traced from the year 1810 in letters of Rev. Samuel Sewall (Jan. 27 and Feb. 28, 1849), and Rev. Charles W. Upham (Salem, Jan. 27, 1849), which are preserved with the book. A more particular history of this copy, which the city of Woburn may justly esteem a treasure, is in the course of preparation.

Pasted on the cover of the work is an advertisement, evidently of the eighteenth century, cut from a newspaper whose name and date were not preserved. It contains proposals for reprinting by subscription the entire work, the title page of which is given, with the running title of the book, followed by the paragraph taken from the preface of Mr. Prince's Chronological History, which we have already quoted in the Bibliography proper, page 182. The proposed reprint was to contain about twenty sheets in octavo, to be printed on good paper and in a good character. The price to subscribers was half a dollar a book. Those who subscribed for six were to have a seventh gratis. The subscriptions were taken by John Draper in Cornhill, or at the printing office in Newbury Street, Boston, and also by "divers ministers and others in this and the neighboring governments," who were furnished with subscription papers for that purpose.

THOMAS C. QUINN. — A work entitled "Massachusetts of To-Day: A memorial of the State, historical and biographical, issued for the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago. Prepared under the direction of Daniel P. Toomey; edited by Thomas C. Quinn." (Boston, 1892.) Contains a sketch of Woburn, with sketches and portraits of its mayors.
